Clever Morning Auction.
Mrs. Morris Sass entertained very charmingly Saturday morning, complimenting Mrs. Mooring of Louisiana the house guest of Mrs. L. H. Love; Mrs. Sidney Bagwell and Mrs. Frank Boasum of Oklahoma City.

Chrysanthemums, ferns and cut flowers were used prettily in the home. A lovely luncheon was enjoyed after the games, by Misses C. D. Carter, C. L. Anderson, W. P. Poland, Mooring, Boasum, Bagwell, E. E. Guillot, Ray Poland, S. M. Davis, W. D. Potter, H. H. Sayre, T. V. Morgan and Mrs. H. L. Crockett.

Pretty favors were given the honor guests, and Mrs. W. P. Poland, who made high score.

'Possum Hunt.
A jolly party indulged Saturday evening in a 'possum hunt. In chase of the little beastie the merry-makers rode several miles in a hay wagon until they came to the place where they grew on persimmon trees, having selected several of the most choice members of the 'possum family, a big bonfire was built and all kinds of good 'cats' were enjoyed. All previous 'possum hunt records were broken with regard to number and size.

Those who were members of the party were: Misses Genevieve Nivoch, Cox and Miller of Tishomingo, Helen Walcott and Beatrice Fraley; Messrs. Frank Stevens, Louis Jones of Tishomingo, Crend Fraley, Hal Sprague, Ford Whitehurst, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Poland.

SEVERE PUNISHMENT
Of Mrs. Chappell, of Five Years' Standing, Relieved by Cardui.

Mt. Airy, N. C.—Mrs. Sarah M. Chappell of this town, says: "I suffered for five years with womanly troubles, also stomach troubles, and my punishment was more than any one could tell."

I tried most every kind of medicine, but none did me any good.

I read one day about Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I decided to try it. I had not taken but about six bottles until I was almost cured. It did me more good than all the other medicines I had tried, put together.

My friends began asking me why I looked so well, and I told them about Cardui. Several are now taking it."

Do you, lady reader, suffer from any of the ailments due to womanly trouble, such as headache, backache, sideache, sleeplessness, and that everlasting tired feeling?

If so, let us urge you to give Cardui a trial. We feel confident it will help you, just as it has a million other women in the past half century.

Begin taking Cardui to-day. You won't regret it. All druggists.

THE CHARM OF MOTHERHOOD
Enhanced By Perfect Physical Health.

The experience of Motherhood is a trying one to most women and marks distinctly an epoch in their lives. Not one woman in a hundred is prepared or understands how to properly care for herself. Of course nearly every woman nowadays has medical treatment at such times, but many approach the experience with an organism unfitted for the trial of strength, and when it is over her system has received a shock from which it is hard to recover. Following right upon this comes the nervous strain of caring for the child, and a distinct change in the mother results.

There is nothing more charming than a happy and healthy mother of children, and indeed child-birth under the right conditions need be no hazard to health or beauty. The unexplainable thing is that, with all the evidence of shattered nerves and broken health resulting from an unprepared condition, and with ample time in which to prepare, women will persist in going blindly to the trial.

Every woman at this time should rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism.

In many homes once children there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy and strong.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

marks in his speech in New York on Thursday concerning persons in the United States who are partisans of other causes than that of America and who have forgotten that their chief allegiance is to the American government.

The Post says, the elections Tuesday "brought a heavy moral defeat" for the president, and that his speech was in retaliation for "this German-American punishment," and was obviously directed against German-Americans.

The form of the speech, the newspaper asserts, was such as had never before been heard from an American president and such as would not have been considered possible from the head of the state.

The Post asserts that in view of "the pronounced hatred of Germany prevailing in America," the speech can lead to the "worst consequences." It declares President Wilson showed "his aversion for and low estimate of German-American's shortly after the outbreak of the war in various utterances."

FAMOUS BOZE TRAIL TO BE MADE HIGHWAY
Bartlesville, Okla., Nov. 7.—Washington county has started work on a state highway which is to extend from the Kansas line in the northern part of the county to the Tulsa county line, a distance of forty miles. The county appropriated $18,000 for roads, but this sum will be added to by funds contributed by oil men and farmers. It is over this highway the Ozarks trail will be marked out.

The highway from the Kansas line will follow the route known for years as the "booze trail," made famous in territorial days because of many clashes between federal enforcement officers and bootleggers. Long lines of wagons used to start out on the "booze trail," to supply the needs of the thirsty white men and Indians on the east side of Oklahoma. Even as late as three years ago this was the method of bringing booze to Oklahoma. Liquor peddlers, or "stock haulers," as they were called after oil was discovered and glycerine had to be transported overland, always traveled nights. Fully a score of federal officers and bootleggers have been killed along the trail between Bartlesville and Caney. Later bootleggers adopted the system of hauling booze from the Kansas side to Oklahoma in automobiles, and this is the system in use today. The bootleggers were just as loud in their demands for better roads as were other persons.

Last winter the state legislature passed a law giving counties the right to appropriate a certain sum for use in building up good roads. Counties will make a road appropriation each year. The Ozarks trail is to be mapped out half way across the state next year.

PATIENT WITNESSES REMOVAL OF BULLET FROM HEART
London, Nov. 7.—The removal of a bullet from one of the chambers of the heart under the influence of only a local anaesthetic and with the patient watching the operation, is described by an army surgeon in the British Medical Journal. The point of chief interest elicited by the surgeon was the insensitiveness of the heart to direct stimulation. The organ was handled freely, opened with a knife, probed with heavy forceps and closed with a row of stitches, without affecting its contractions or causing the patient the slightest pain or discomfort.

The operation was performed under a local anaesthetic," writes the surgeon, "eucaine with adrenalin being used. The heart was exposed. No sound could be seen, but on examination by the surgeon's finger, the bullet was felt at the back of the heart either in the muscle or in the chamber of the right ventricle. It was noticed that manipulation of the heart caused the patient no pain or discomfort of any kind, though the organ occasionally missed a beat, and this, in spite of the fact that the anaesthetic had been injected only into the skin and muscles of the chest wall. The patient of course was conscious throughout. "The bullet was grasped and was then felt to be inside the chamber, so an incision half an inch long was made in the heart wall, and the bullet removed by forceps."
